

Doctors More Likely to Prescribe Opioids to Covid 'Long Haulers,'
Raising Addiction Fears | Kaiser Health News

- n Increase in opioid and benzo prescriptions related to treatment of “Long COVID.”
- n Opioids still not appropriate for treatment of long term chronic pain, even in Long COVID.
- n However, we are still developing an understanding of Long COVID and are still working on the best treatments for symptoms of Long-COVID.

<https://khn.org/news/article/doctors-more-likely-to-prescribe-opioids-to-covid-long-haulers-raising-addiction-fears/>